

"We will hold shared power and responsibility in the spirit of collaboration, mutual trust and listening – where leadership and power is distributed to where and who in the system is in the best position to exercise it."

- Who is in charge of governance?
- Who should have a voice in governance decision-making?
- What about our governance culture helps or hinders our ability to meet this aspiration?
- Is it possible for the board to be less the 'home' of governance and more the 'host' of governance?

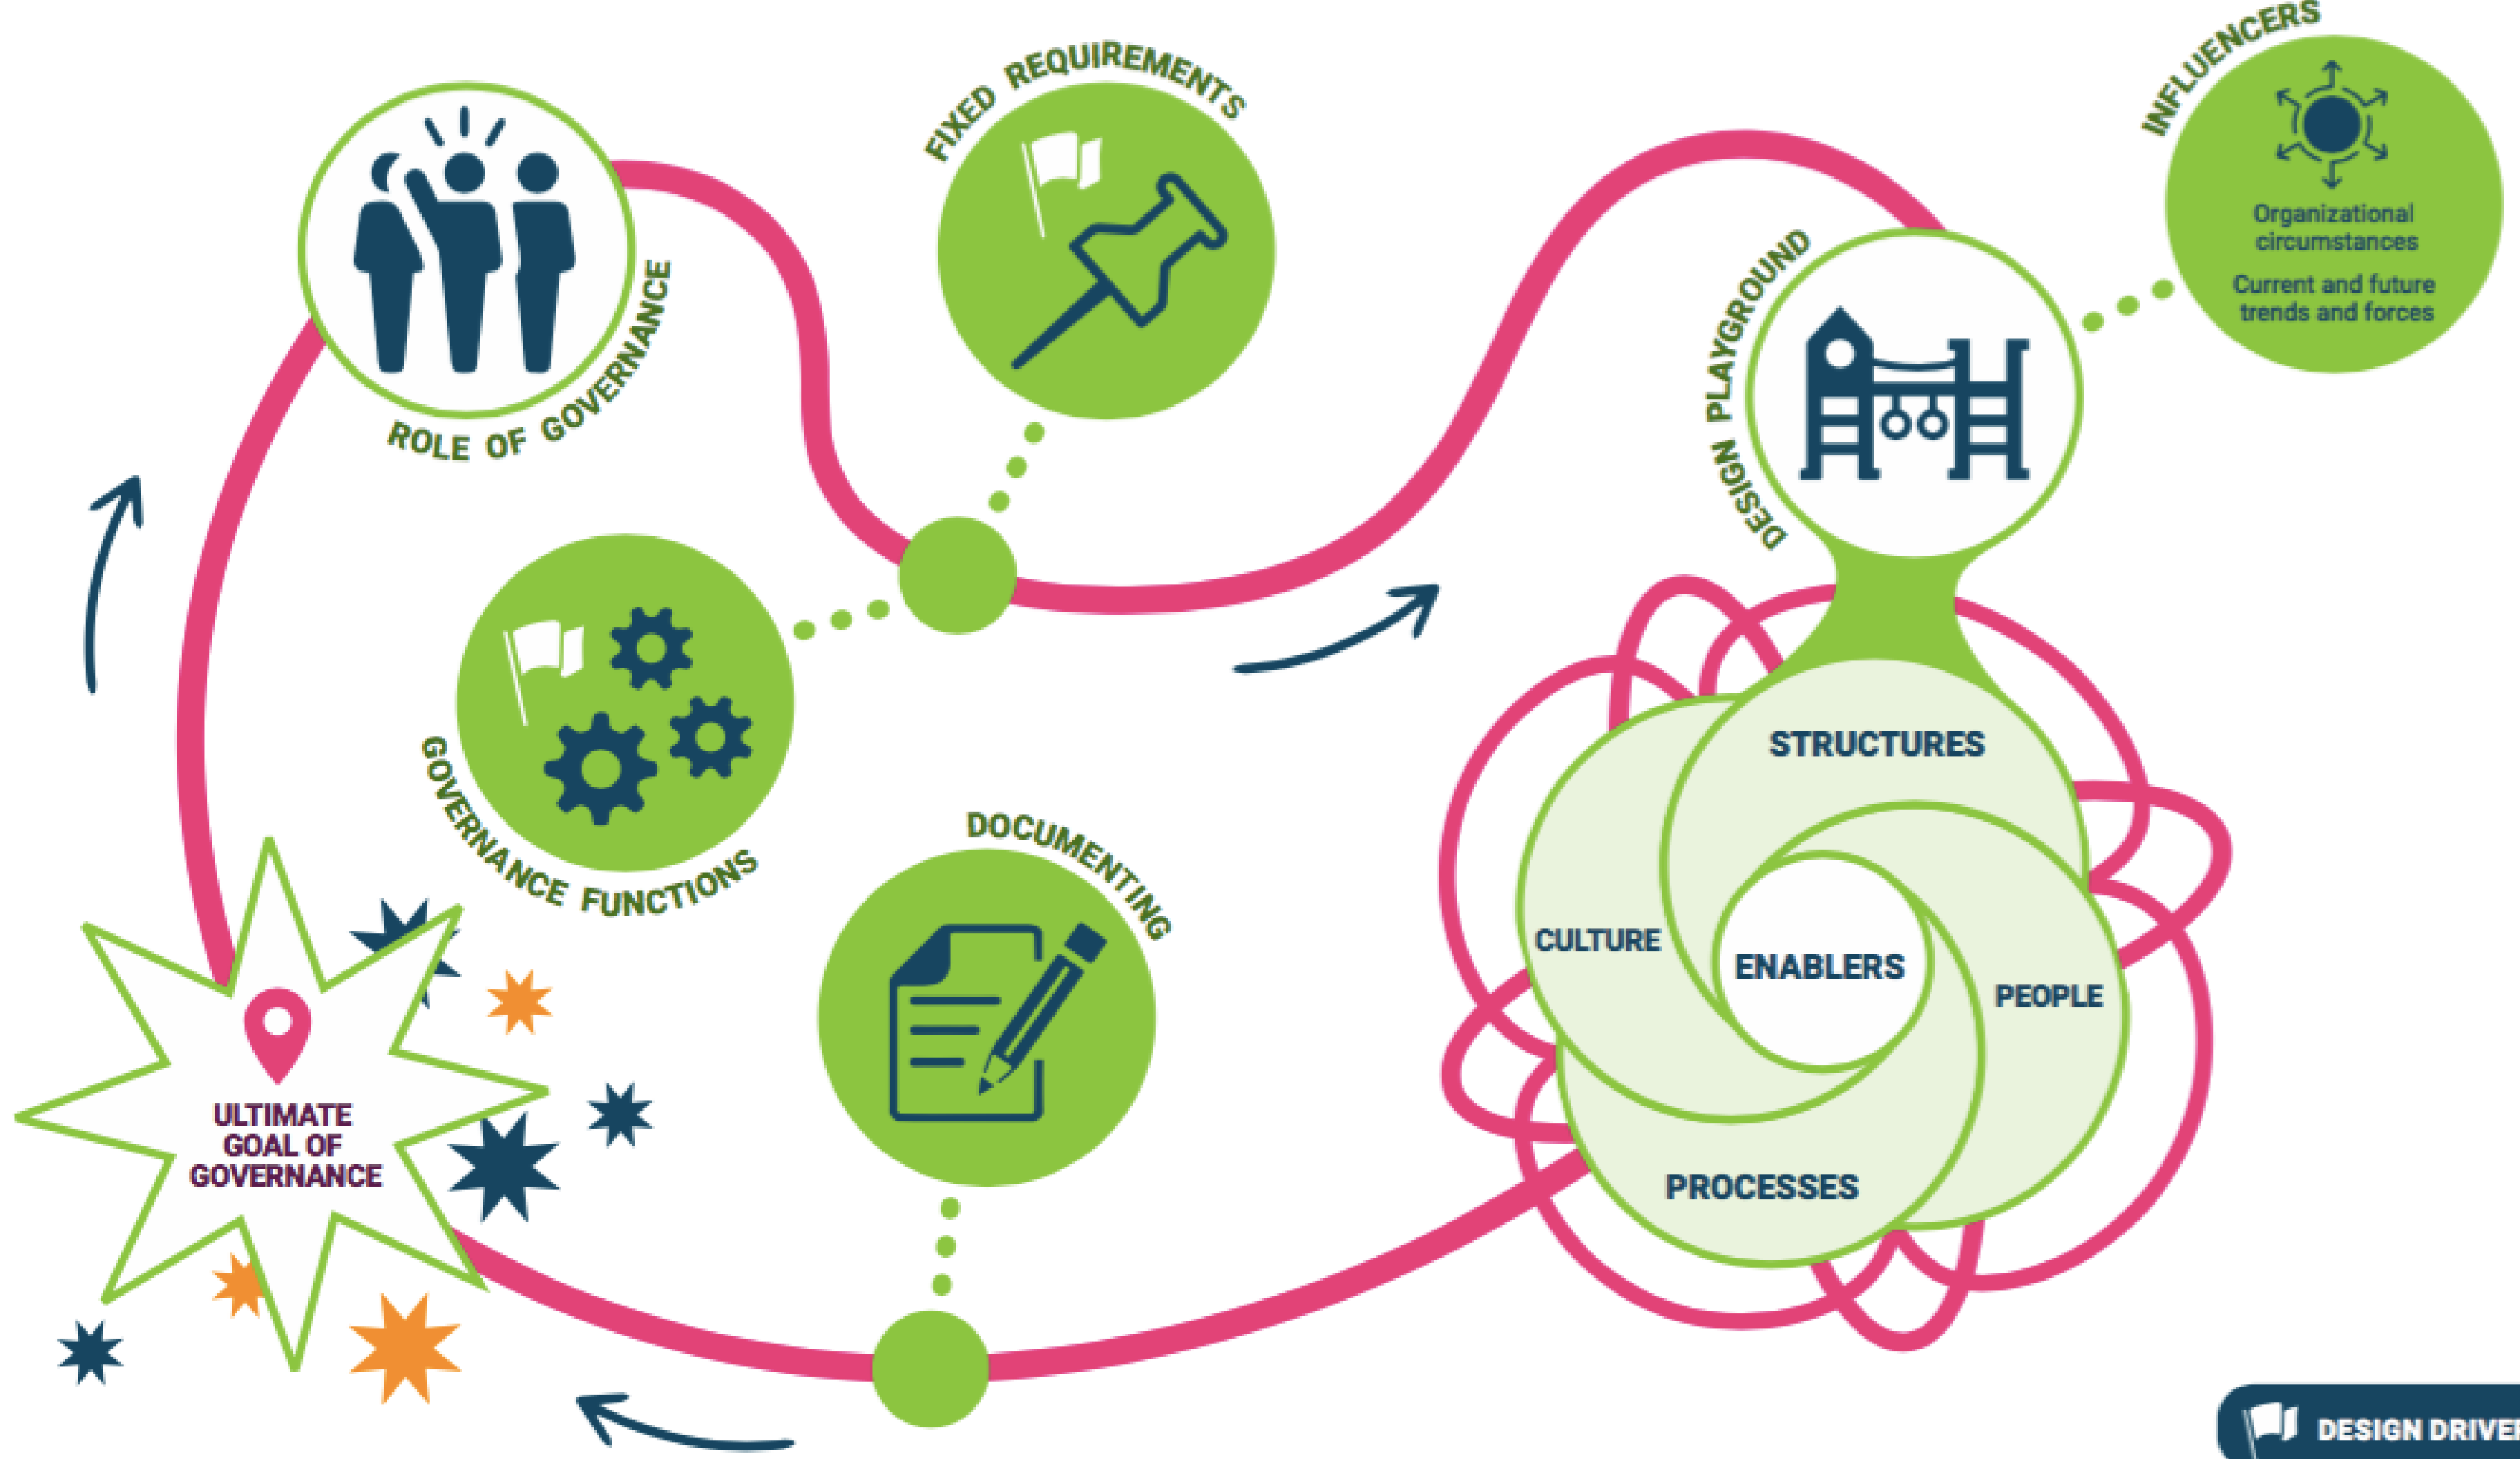

-
- The skills, experience and knowledge required to govern are complex.
  - Equity, diversity and inclusion are governance imperatives.
  - Governance is designed to be adaptive and agile.
  - Governance decision-making is more broadly shared.
  - Technology rewires the way governance work is done.
-

THIS IS FINE. THIS WORKS.

NONPROFITS

GOVERNANCE MODELS

REIMAGINING GOVERNANCE

Erin Kang - erin@theonnn.ca

Linda Mollenhauer - mollenhauerl@rogers.com

<https://theonnn.ca/our-work/our-people/reimagining-governance/>